Kiwaniis Club of Summerland

The Club presented two $1,000 matching scholarships to students graduating from Summerland Secondary School:

Haylee Rolstan, who is attending the University of British Columbia Okanagan to become a nurse and eventually a doctor.

Adrian Wilkinson, who has been accepted into the Heavy Mechanical Program at Okanagan College in Kelowna, BC.

Kiwaniis Club of Chatham - Kent

Dheetpi Thommandram and Adi Zingman are all smiles after receiving their $1,000 scholarships from the local Kiwanis Club of Chatham-Kent recently. They are pictured with scholarship committee Kiwanis members Dennis Myers and Mary Beth Corcoran.

The two students from Chatham-Kent Secondary School were the recipients of this year's Kiwanis Scholarship awards at a Kiwanis dinner meeting they attended with their parents in Chatham.

Dheetpi Thommandram and Adi Zingman, both Grade 12 students, were awarded $1,000 scholarships based on applications made to the program. According to scholarship committee member Dennis Myers, both girls had outstanding applications based on academics, community and school involvement, as well as leadership qualities.

Laurie Billings Community Leadership Scholarships

At its meeting on September 19th, the Kiwanis Club of Edmonton Oil Capital presented two $1,000 Laurie Billings Community Leadership Scholarships, in partnership with the Kiwanis Foundation of Canada, to:

Ana Priolo-Marin, a graduate of Holy Trinity Catholic High School, attending the University of Alberta, taking a Bachelor Degree in Music. She provided leadership to other students in her school, took an active part in music presentations in her school, church and the community, including an auxiliary hospital. She tutored students in Spanish bilingual programs.

Bushra Anjum, a graduate of J. Percy Page High School, is attending the University of Alberta taking a Bachelor Degree in Science, with a goal of becoming a pediatrician. She was active in both the Key Club and the Rotary Interact Club, helping with service projects and fund raising as well as working on the school newspaper. She was accepted into the Heritage Youth Researcher Summer (HYRS) Program as a Pediatric Research Student at the University of Alberta. She was a camp leader, a language tutor to children and a volunteer at the Grey Nuns Hospital.
